

RPAC Pledge Form

From Washington, D.C., to your City Hall and county courthouse, elected officials are making decisions that impact our industry and your profitability. Would your business be affected if:

- Congress eliminates the Mortgage Interest Deduction?
- Federal regulators mandate a 20 percent down payment to be eligible for a Qualified Residential Mortgage?
- City and county governments held you personally responsible for code violations on your listings?
- You – as an affiliated broker or agent – had to pay hundreds of dollars per year for a local business license?

The REALTORS® Political Action Committee (RPAC) is fighting to protect your livelihood on each of these issues and more. Your investment in RPAC is used to support candidates for federal, state, and local office who share our position on important real estate issues.

We ask you to pledge your commitment to RPAC now and invest in the future of your business.
